Scripture: Song of Solomon 2:10-13 New International Version (NIV) See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone. Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land. <sup>13</sup> The fig tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance. Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me.”	Comment My son is getting married this weekend so I need to look good! To counteract my age, my face needs lifting but I don't have the time or the money! Instead I chose to have my eyebrows shaped and the result is pleasing! It took about one hour, door to door! Surgery won't energise a tired marriage but some attention and a little effort will bear pleasing fruit. What can you do for your partner to lift their heart and pour in the balm of love?
Prayer (as a couple): Lord God please inspire us in our marriage. We confess how easily we take our love for granted and forget to be attentive to each other. Please give us ideas to lift each other's hearts so we have the breath of spring time in our lives and blowing through our home. Amen	Prayer (for others): Lord we pray for our friends, and our wider family. Breath your life and your love into their homes Lord (name the families you want to bless) Give them lovely suggestions of ways they can be creative in their love Amen
Final quote: She has done a beautiful thing for me.... Matt26 v 10

Remember others will also be praying in this way this week. Together and with God we can make a difference.
